DOCK NEWS

Daughters of Christ The King

DOCK, women's ministries at The Church at Lake Cherokee, thanks everyone who helped make the 2014 Christmas Market a huge success.

DOCK's own words are: "Without you, we could have never "pulled off" such a big event. Every task made a difference: moving tables, decorating, donated raffle items, wonderful bake sale treats, worked a booth or helped in the kitchen. The youth greeters and golf cart drivers were great.

Most importantly, we raised enough funds to almost cover our backpack project for the rest of the school year.

Watch for dates for DOCK January meeting and "Dinner and Movie" night.

Kids Kount Korner

You cannot hear this too often: Kids Kount meets Sunday evenings –with rare exception— from 5:00 – 7:00. Come enjoy “encounter time,” a service project, recreation and what is rated as “the BEST SNACK SUPPER in Gregg County.” See you guys there.

We are so grateful that Darla Martin is serving Kids Kount this week.

Next week, December 21, is the “Annual Kids Kount Gala / Christmas Extravaganza / Ugly Sweater Shindig.

We’re grateful to Chuck Conrad for providing the meal for the event. Come, wear your ugly sweater, enter the contest and have a great time. Remember to bring your Gag Gift. There’s no need to purchase anything. Just wrap up something you want to get rid of, except sisters or brothers.

In preparation for the Kids Kount Christmas, there’s a secret Kids Kount “Ugly Sweater” Creation Party Saturday, December 20 in Maxwell Hall from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM. Participants are invited to bring your sweater, some supplies and create your masterpiece. Okay! So it’s no longer a secret!

How could you have missed this; but maybe you did: Peanut Butter and Jelly Drive continues as we are half way to our goal of 100 Jars of Peanut Butter by the youth and 100 Jars of Jelly by “whomever will give them.” Our goal is 100 each.

Big News!

Youth Bible Study is Tuesday December 16th as Kids study the second week of “Faith Commander.” Bible Study meets from 7:00 to 8:00 PM. A light snack is provided
