DOCK NEWS

Daughters of Christ the King

Major emphases of D O C K are:

- Mini Market

Women of the church and community are invited to Swap and Shop THIS Thursday, October 29, 6:30–9:00 PM in Maxwell Hall. The leadership of DOCK proclaim, It's time to clean out closets to get ready for fall and winter. Bring items you're tired of, don't fit, don't match, etc. We're not expecting "designer clothing." Bring "items" that you want to exchange with your girlfriend. We want all sizes; so there's no excuse that "no one wears my size or would like my clothes!" You MUST have something you no longer wear! Also, you can shop our Mini Market featuring handmade jewelry, home decor, wreaths, initialed bags as well as "Scentsy" products.

Dinner will be served and babysitting will be provided; so bring some friends to get new clothing FREE and get some early Christmas shopping done!

- The Market 2015

DOCK is also promoting a major emphasis: THE MARKET 2015 December 5th, 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Vendors within and outside the church may "rent" a booth to sell products. ALL are invited to shop!

Contact Jane Woven for more information, (903) 643-8003.

Veterans Day Observed

Veterans Day Sunday, November 8, the Sunday prior to Veterans Day, we remember with gratitude all of whom we know who have served in the U.S. military. Veterans Day was first observed as Armistice Day commemorating the end of World War I, the "war to end all wars." However, the observance was changed to Veterans Day honoring men and women who have served in all branches of the U.S. military.

Veterans of whom we are aware are:

Jim Wallace	Darrell Wolven
Paul Bryan	Ken Pope
Mike Hendrick	Don Ehl
John Hacker	Bruce Bronsema
James Allen	Hunter Rosenthal
Ronnie Irwin	Tommy Pelton
Ed Arneson	Mark Hale
Scott Cole	Tommy Hooten
Karl Cunyus	Dustin Bates
Thomas White	Al Luepnitz
Dan Branson.

Please help us: if you are a veteran of the United States military or know of one in the church or church family who is omitted from this list, please call Bill Smythe, 903 240-9631.

All Saints Day, Sunday, November 1, with reverence and gratitude, we will speak the names of loved ones who have died, especially remembering those who have died since All Saints Day, 2014.

All Saints Day has been observed since the 9th century by Roman Catholic, Anglican/Episcopal and Protestant Christians. We are prepared to remember the following:

MEN'S DINNER

Surf, Turf & Sky "in Review"

We have so many to thank for a great evening and a great meal: Dave Clark, Bill Smythe, shoppers and organizers; Mike Hendrick, chief "griller" along with others who helped; George Steele and Bart Owens, grilled dove "poppers;" George Steele, Ted James, Tommy Hooten, cooks and servers; and J. T. Roberts, fried pie desert.

Others provided additional appetizers; Randy Graves and Jackie Clayton helped with trash carry-off; and an entire army assisted with clean up.

It was a good evening with great steaks, shrimp, dove and "table talk."
