

Keeping In Touch

JUNE 29, 2016

Save the Date! Vacation Bible School : July 17-20

This year's VBS is Sunday – Wednesday, July 17–July 20. The theme is “Surf Shack, Catch the Wave of God’s Amazing Love.” Sharon Graves, director, still needs volunteers to teach and to assist with group activities.

In addition, helpers are needed to prepare and serve supper, July 18th and 19th and to prepare and serve snacks each evening. If available to help, contact Lori Hendrick.

Parents' Night is Wednesday, the 20th. Save the date and look for more information.

Independence Sunday!

The Church at Lake Cherokee

- + 10:00 AM Sunday School for all ages
- + 11:00 AM Sunday Worship
- + 12:00 PM Fellowship Meal
- + There is NO Kids Kount meeting this Sunday as high school / CYF return from Mission Trip and families observe Independence Weekend!

Child Care is provided Sunday School— Lunch. After Lunch “Cleanup” is by members with last name A-F.

Memorial Service

The Church at Lake Cherokee shares concern for a church family following the death of a loved one:

Memorial Service for Deana Bolton Covin, Jadean Roberts' mother, is Friday, July 1, 4:00 PM at St. Luke's Methodist Church, Kilgore with burial to follow in Old Henderson Cemetery, Henderson. Visitation will be Thursday, 6:00–8:00 PM at Rader Funeral Home, Kilgore. Our church is serving a family dinner, Friday evening in Maxwell Hall.

Addressing Issues of Safety

Because of general security concerns, there is security personnel at church Sundays.

Kids Kount Korner 7

This week "a truck load" —literally a van load— of youth and adults from The Church at Lake Cherokee "headed" to St. Louis to participate in Mission Trip, 2016 sponsored by the Christian Church in the Southwest. Thanks to Patrick and Terri Peerenboom and Chad and Susie Swanson for sponsoring the trip Madison Peerenboom, Cole Geddie, Brandyce Smythe, Jimmie Jakubowski, Braden Mims, Sara Paige Standfield, Natalie Trichel, Jordan Weeks, Tye Cart and Megan Dodson.

> Volunteers for VBS. DOCK leadership is reminding members that volunteers are needed to assist with Vacation Bible School July 17th—20th. In particular, volunteers are needed to help prepare and serve meals and snacks each night. Please speak to Lori Hendrick or Sharon Graves to volunteer!

> The Market. Put this date on your calendar: The Market November 19th. If you wish to have a booth for The Market, please reserve your space now.

> Food and Personal Need Donations. Members of DOCK —Daughters of Christ the King— are among our most faithful donors of food and personal care items. Containers to accept your gifts are in Maxwell Hall.

No Kids Kount this Sunday in observance of Independence Day weekend; however, Bible Study is Tuesday, July 5th, 7:00 PM at the Peerenboom's.

Just another reminder: remaining youth events this summer are:

- > Christian Youth Leadership Seminar, Monday -Saturday, July 25-30;
- > Junior Youth Fellowship Camp, Monday-Friday, August 1-5; and
- > Mission Trip #2, Friday-Sunday, August 12-14

Highlights of Italy

Visiting Venice, Florence, Assisi, Sorrento, Rome;
November 4–15, 2016

If interested in a twelve day trip to Italy this fall, speak to Bill Smythe. The trip is planned with religious, cultural, and artistic interest in mind. The cost includes airfare, lodging, tours, ground travel, admissions, guides and most meals.

The trip currently includes twelve and perhaps fourteen travelers departing from and returning to Dallas.
