

DOCK Daughters of Christ the King

If one questions whether or not “Fall is in the Air,” here’s proof! DOCK’s fall activities are well underway. Next week, two fall Bible Studies will begin.

> Morning Bible Study begins Wednesday, September 21, 10:00 in Maxwell Hall. The study is Beth Moore's curriculum on 2nd Timothy, “Entrusted.” Guest teacher is Sue Boyd. Materials have been ordered; however, if one needs additional information, call, text or email Tressie Grant, 318 780620; two aggs@gamil.com. Welcome!

> Evening Bible Study resumes Tuesday, September 20th, 6:00, Maxwell Hall beginning with a light meal and study begins at 6:20. Students are getting materials at Lifeway or Mardel. The study is Pricilla Shirer’s “Armor of God.” taught by Sharon Graves. For more information or to let Sharon know you’re attending, contact Sharon Graves, shagra28@gmail.com, 903 2354144. Please advise Sharon is you can attend; and “don't worry about missing a night or 2.” Sharon encourages you, “Take every chance you get to study God's Word.”

Looking further into the fall, THE MARKET plans are well underway. The Market, to be November 19th, is an annual DOCK event, proceeds from which fund the organization’s various and significant mission projects including the Backpack Program which provides weekend food for children who are on the school lunch program. The women of DOCK seek your participation and support.

On-going Mission

It’s likely that you’ll never look at a yellow wagon in the same way again. For months, the Yellow Wagon, as pictured below, has been in Maxwell Hall as a place for you and me to place stable food items that WILL be shared with less fortunate folks nearby. The food is distributed through the Samaritan House, an outreach ministry in Tatum. Please share generously: canned or bagged staple foods, especially flour, sugar, canned meats and canned vegetables. In addition, personal care items are really appreciated.

Trunk N Treat is Saturday, October 22nd, 12:00 ~ 4:00 PM at The Church at Lake Cherokee. If you’re interested in hosting a “trunk” or volunteering in some other “terrifying way,” contact Patrick Peerenboom,

Kids Kount

Here’s the good news: Kids Kount, meets Sundays, 5:00—7:00 PM. Our thanks to Mary Wade and Pandy Allen for providing last week’s Kids Kount meal. This week’s meal is provided by Chuck Conrad. Thanks, Chuck.

Youth Bible Study is Tuesdays 7:30 to 8:30 PM at the Peerenboom's home, SH45 Lake Cherokee. A meal is provided. Bring your Bible and a friend.
