

Keeping In Touch

November 2, 2016

The Market, 2017

One can generally tell “fall is in the air.” Where are “cooler mornings and evening?” Well, this year one CAN distinguish the changing season. This year, as we are experiencing record or near record warm temperatures and only hints of changing colors, we can still confirm that fall approaches as we anticipate THE MARKET, 2017 at The Church at Lake Cherokee, Saturday, November 19th.

Thanks to all who are working to make THE MARKET, 2017 a great success. Thanks to those who plan, organize, recruit vendors, serve as hostesses, cook and bake, and contribute time and energy.

D O C K, Daughters of Christ the King, anticipates great success with the annual event which supports outreach, mission and service ministries at The Church at Lake Cherokee.

So you ask, “What can I do?” Attend The Market, 2017. encourage friends and family to stop by. Tell folks where you work about the event. Put up a poster publicizing The Market, 2017; sign up in Maxwell Hall to help the day of the event; provide a baked good such as pies, cakes, breads; help event sponsors, DOCK, by “lending” a few bails of hay for use the day of the event; and volunteer to help set up and decorate the week of The Market, 2017. Can we say, “...something for everyone?” I think so. Remember, DOCK’s “battle cry,” “It takes a village.” Help us out, “village!”

There will be no “Keeping In Touch” the weeks of November 7th or 14th !

As important or emergency announcements, joys or concerns arise November 3— November 15, please call or email Jeanne Irwin, jeanneirwin2@gmail.com; Patrick Peerenboom, patrick@thechurchatlakecherokee.com; or Mike Maxwell, mikemaxwel@aol.com.

As THE MARKET 2016 approaches, women of DOCK are deeply involved planning and preparing for this major fund raising event.

In these weeks, also, the two fall DOCK Bible studies are coming to a close.

Look to the weeks ahead for more exciting news for DOCK, Daughters of Christ the King.

As holidays approach and the church ponders ministries to the community, we again launch Katy's Project: an effort to provide a few essential services and expressions of compassion to folks in need in our community. This year, to activate Katy's Project youth ministry teams up with Katy Hull, Steve Ramsey and others to prepare "care kits" to pass to give to church members so YOU can give them to folks in need in the community. Contents of the kits —mostly personal care items and a small amount of cash— can be handed to whom one might see along the streets or highways in need of "a little assistance."

A Special offering will be taken Sunday November 20th so that EACH OF US can participate as we purchase supplies for the kits. Katy and Steve will introduce the project in worship Sunday.
