Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

Trunk N Treat "Review"

Trunk N Treat was a "real treat" for all who helped and participated. A SPECIAL thanks to Elise Frigon for her hard work and to each other volunteer, simply too many to mention. We are grateful for those who donated food and supplies, worked in the kitchen and served, cleaned up, worked at "stations" and games, hosted "trunks," worked the Haunted House and inside and outside games. Trunk N Treat is an outreach ministry of The Church at Lake Cherokee to the community.

Two IMPORTANT Reminders

< During autumn folks are especially generous and willing to share. Thank you. Remember that "hunger does NOT take a holiday." Will you please routinely place a staple food item in the Yellow Wagon in Maxwell Hall? The "Yellow Wagon" hasn't had much activity lately! Donated items are distributed through The Samaritan House in Tatum.

< Sunday Fellowship Lunch is part of The Church at Lake Cherokee's DNA. We're especially grateful to share lunch with visitors. The operative word is "share." We ask members to bring a covered dish to share with other members and guest. Thanks!

The Ministry of the Laity!

The Church at Lake Cherokee is blessed with extraordinarily talented lay members. Our special thanks to Mr. Andy Evans, one of our lay members and head football coach at Tatum High School, for preaching this past Sunday and affirming The Ministry of the Laity!

Kids Kount Korner

We are so grateful for volunteers who serve snack supper. Thank you! Ms. Sharon and others served last Sunday. This week snack supper, affectionately known as "N-Gest," will be served by Jadean Roberts, Elaine Hale and Jeanne Irwin.

Now, I can't believe that there is even one of you who don't know this; but here goes: "KIDS KOUNT YOUTH MINISTRY MEETS THIS SUNDAY NIGHT --following hand chimes-- from 5:00 - 7:00 PM. Come share recreation, study/encounter time, fellowship, supper and a closing devotional.

I know you've ben wondering; so here's more scope:

- Youth Bible Study is next Tuesday, November 4, 7:00 - 8:00 PM
- Chi Rho (ah, as in "Middle School") Fall Retreat with 22 youth attending is November 7 through 9
