December Men's Breakfast Program: "Why Get a Massage?"

Saturday, December 1st; 8:30 a.m.
Fellowship Hall

The program will be presented by Pete Martinez, a member of The Church at Lake Cherokee, faculty at Kilgore College, and a Registered Massage Therapist.

As an act of generosity, Pete has contributed ten one hour massage sessions to The Church at Lake Cherokee to sell for $50.00 each. If you are interested, see Bill Smythe. The proceeds of the gifts will benefit the church. THANKS, PETE!

Thanksgiving Boxes Prepared

Thanks to Carolyn Williams, Mary Wade, Darla Martin, Alisha Bixby and Hayden Bixby, The Church at Lake Cherokee provided, packed and delivered one hundred and forty boxes of food especially selected as a Thanksgiving meal!

Thanks to a huge crew of volunteers, the meals were loaded and delivered to the Samaritan Center in Tatum for distribution. In the way that Thanksgiving Day is an expression of gratitude throughout the year, food at Thanksgiving is an expression of our commitment to serve throughout the year.

Share Christmas Plans

As group holiday events are scheduled, please email church@thechurchatlakecherokee.com so that we can put your activities on the church calendar, post on the website and include in "Keeping In Touch." Here are events of which we are aware:

- Genesis Sunday School Class Party & Dinner, 12/14; 6:45 at the Smythes
- Kids Kount Outing to Marshall Lights, 12/9, 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
- Kids Kount Kristmas Karoling Party with Dinner, While Elephant Gift Exchange and "S-more;" 12/16, 5:00 at the Smythes

Thanks for the congregation's generous supper of Women's Ministries Backpack Program which provides meals for children in the school lunch program to take home for evenings and weekends. Thanks to the youth of Kids Kount for packing the "backpacks" each week.

There will be a Women's Ministries Leadership Meeting during lunch November 25th.

The Tuesday morning Bible will complete their current today planning to resume January 8th. Information will follow on the Evening Bible Study.

Mission Possible

As winter months approach, be sure to remember the ministries and services of "Mission Possible," an outreach of the men –and some women—of The Church at Lake Cherokee to provide free of charge volunteer services to the church and community. Services include, but are not limited to: carpentry, mechanical, painting:, pickup / delivery, minor pumbing, masonry, lawn care, electrical, haul and cook.

Volunteers "go out in twos" Work is voluntary. If you need help, call Dave Clark 903-643-2833; Ray Eustace 903-643-8227 or Bill Smythe, 903 643-7238.
